CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR RIDERS ON A PHENOMENAL 2024!

Thank you West Palms for creating the Michael Nyuis Scholarship and giving this opportunity to riders!

MARIA TAKACS

Maria Takacs is a USEF "R" Judge in Hunter, Jumping Seat Equitation and Hunter Breeding. Maria rode to many national titles as a junior and amateur rider including Devon, The Pennsylvania National, Washington International and The Capital Challenge. She has trained with many outstanding professionals including Leo Conroy, John French, Holly Orlando, Jennifer Bauersachs and David Belford. She owns and operates Heathersfield Farm LLC, a private training stable located in Bedminster, New Jersey. Her students, which include her daughter, Samantha Takacs, have won numerous national titles including the USEF Pony Finals, Devon, Harrisburg, Washington and The Capital Challenge. Maria received her B.S. in Economics from Lafayette College and earned her CPA license in the State of Pennsylvania. Before opening her stable, Maria worked as an Institutional Salesperson for Morgan Stanley in New York City where she was a Principal in Emerging Markets.

AMY NUNNALLY

Amy Davis Nunnally grew up in the Northeast successfully competing in the pony hunters, junior hunters, USEF Medal and ASPCA Maclay. continued her success riding IHSA for her college.

In 1999 Amy moved to Virginia and began her career as a professional. Amy showed and trained in the hunter and equitation rings for 25 years from Wellington to Traverse City and back to Virginia.

Amy recently retired from riding and training and sold the business and is now focused on judging nationwide.

CONNIE TRAMM HUNT

Connie Tramm Hunt, is a USEF large "R" Judge in Hunter, Hunter Breeding and Hunter/Jumping Seat Equitation and "r" in Jumpers. Connie competed as a working student throughout the Midwest and South with major wins at Upperville, Detroit, Kentucky, Blowing Rock and WEF, while catch riding for such professionals as Otis Brown, Sue Ashe, John Roper, Ronnie Mutch, and Don Stewart. For over twenty years, she trained for private families first in Massachusetts and then in Michigan, where she makes her home. With the children from those families now having their own families, she has expanded her judging to include USEF Pony Finals, Royal Winter Fair in Toronto, Desert International Horse Park, Old Salem Horse Show, Caledon Equestrian Park in Ontario, WEF, GLEF, WEC Ocala and Ohio. Most recently she has contributed to civic governance as a member of the USEF Licensed Officials Committee and the chairperson of the USHJA Licensed Officials Education Committee. When not traveling to judge, Connie enjoys freelance training and offering clinics.

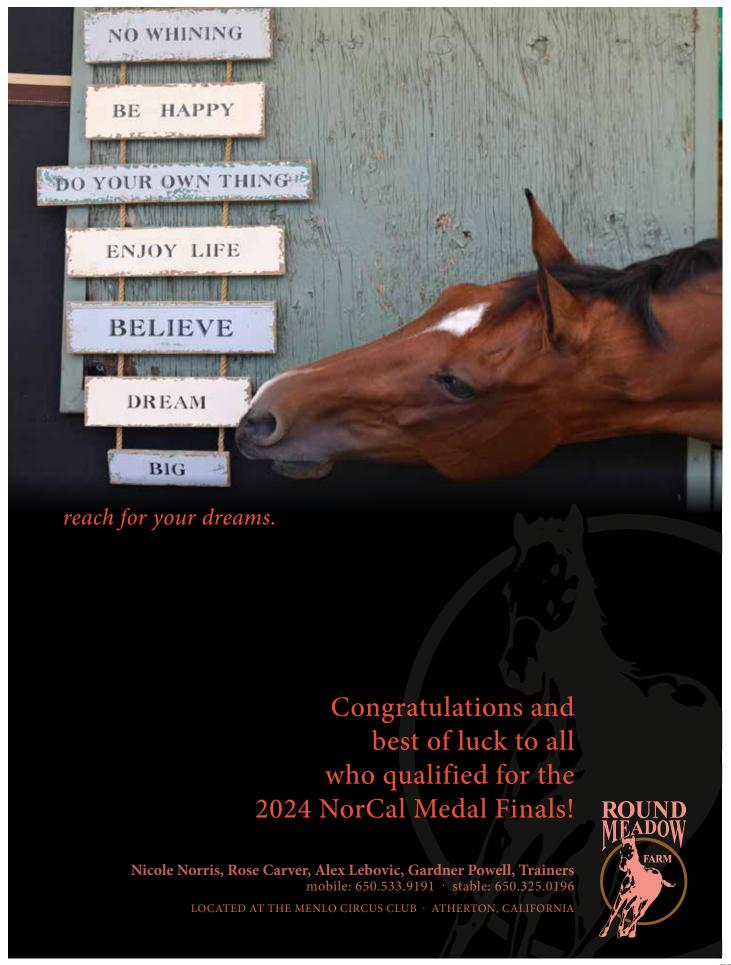

BOB CRANDALL

Bob has been a professional rider and trainer for over 40 years. As a trainer, he found, developed and promoted many young green horses to success in the show ring, as well as many wins himself as a rider from West Palm Beach, Devon, Harrisburg, Washington, and the National.

He also has judged across the country, including notable shows such as West Palm Beach, Thermal, New England Finals, Capital Challenge, Pony Finals, Devon and Harrisburg.

Lightacres sponsors the NorCal award for the Best Medal Horse in honor of EVAN.

Evan took his riders to top 10 finishes in every major medal final. He particularly loved the NorCal Medal Finals. He carried the winners of the 1995 and 1996 Junior Medal Champions and the 1993 Reserve Champion. It is in his honor that we sponsor this award which will be given to the horse, determined by the judges, to be the "Best Horse" of the NorCal Junior or Senior Finals
